“ On behalf of myself, Stan, Mark and David we want to extend our sincere condolences on Ryan’s passing. We talked about him and their boyhood activities and our trip to Pennsylvania. He was a funny and sincere young man and the world has lost a wonder soul. Regards The Gregory Family

“ I've known Ryan for years. He has worked with my husband for over four years and he has always had a quick smile and hello for me whenever my son and I would pop into the kitchen. Our four year old son loved to sit next to Ryan on the bar stools at MOD and eat his burger while chatting with Ryan about video games. Ryan never seemed annoyed to be talking with a four year old and they would make each other laugh. Life for the MOD family will not be the same without him and he is already SO missed.
